Course Description, Prerequisites, Corequisites:

Chinese 2221 is designed for students who have basic Chinese language skills, and who have either acquired approximately 500 Chinese characters or have completed Chinese 1215.

Through enhanced practice, students focus on pronunciation accuracy and developing communication skills based on real-life situations, such as ordering food in a restaurant, shopping, renting an apartment, dating, and interviewing for a job.

At the end of this course, students are able to communicate fluently in Mandarin on a variety of everyday life topics, performing real-world tasks through the accurate and creative use of the target language.
